

OTAFEST 2009 ART AUCTION

Otafest presents its first ever Art Auction. A showcase of artistic talent within Western Canada's own Anime community.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entries must be done in a traditional medium, hand-painted cells or prints on large-scale canvas. Artwork is not limited to 2-D pieces as the auction is also open to any 3-D pieces. All entries MUST be original artwork done by the entrant.
2. There will be no mail-in art. The artist will deliver all pieces to the convention during the appropriate set-up hours.
3. Sexually explicit content is prohibited from being sold within the art auction. Violation of this rule will result in immediate termination of the entrant and all pieces.
4. Copyright infringement laws are to be followed in the Otafest Art Auction. Violators of copyright laws and plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in an immediate and permanent ban from Otafest.
5. Otafest has the right to take 10% of the proceeds from each entry as a fee to enter and as a donation to charity. There will be no penalty for entries that have not been bid on.
6. Otafest reserves the right to decline any entries for reasons that include, but are not limited to: art theft, violation of Canadian law, and violation of Otafest policies and/or breach of art auction rules and regulations.
7. Otafest is not liable for any lost or stolen property.

ENTRY PROCEDURES

1. Entrants will be given the option to place down a "selling bid" price if so desired.
2. A minimum bid is required for all auction pieces.
3. Entrants are responsible for their own framework and presentation. A table will be provided for display; however, the entrant may also have the option of bringing their own easel.
4. Entrants are only able to enter in three entries MAX.
5. Entries cannot exceed a size of 4ft. by 4ft.
6. All payments made to the artists will be in cash.
7. Otafest has the right to deny entry to any participant before or during the convention.
